

UNSTEADY FOUNDATIONS

THE PROBLEM OF 1619 IN HISTORIES OF THE BLACK ATLANTIC

Prof. Herman Bennett

*THE GRADUATE CENTER, CUNY
NEW VISITING PROFESSOR AT THE CULTURE DEPARTMENT OF THE
JOHN F. KENNEDY INSTITUTE*

OPENING LECTURE: WINTER SEMESTER 19/20

WED | OCTOBER 16 | 6 PM
RAUM 340

Freie Universität  Berlin

John F. Kennedy Institute
for North American Studies

GRADUATE SCHOOL
OF NORTH AMERICAN STUDIES

Herman Bennett is a renowned scholar on the history of the African diaspora, with a particular focus on Latin American history. Through his work, he has called for scholars to broaden the critical inquiry of race and ethnicity in the colonial world.

(The Graduate Center)