

Karel Schwarzenberg: His Life and Legacy and the Future of Democracy in Europe's Troubled World

Chaired by Dr Andrew Graham, Chair of Trustees of the Europaeum and former Master of Balliol College, Oxford, and Prof. PhDr. Eva Voldřichová Beránková, PhD, Vice-Rector for International Affairs, Charles University.
Introduced by Prof. JUDr. Jan Kuklík, PhD, Charles University.

Speakers

- Dr Barbara Tóth, journalist, writer and historian; author of 'Karl von Schwarzenberg, Die Biografie', 2005;
- Michael Žantovský, former Ambassador; Senior Fellow, Prague Center for Transatlantic Relations, CEVRO Institute;
- Prof. Timothy Garton Ash, St Antony's College, Oxford; author of 'Homelands: A Personal History of Europe';
- Doc. PhDr. Petra Guasti, PhD, Dr. Habil., Department of Political Science, Charles University;
- Dr Jakub Franěk, Department of Political Science, Charles University;
- Prof. Jacques Rupnik, Sciences Po, Paris, and College of Europe, Bruges; former adviser to Czech President Vaclav Havel.

Tuesday 13 May 2025

Event: 14.30 - 17.00 hours CET / 13.30 - 16.00 hours UK time

Refreshments: 17.00 - 18.00 hours CET

In-person attendees: please register in advance using this link by 8 May.

Venue: Charles University, Blue Auditorium, Celetná 20, Prague 1.

Online attendees can access the stream through this MS Teams' link.

Please contact office@europaeum.org for any further information.