

For 2024, the Friedrich Schlegel Graduate School of Literary Studies (FSGS) and the Cluster of Excellence 2020 "Temporal Communities: Doing Literature in a Global Perspective" (EXC TC) offer the following positions and grants:

- up to 3 project grants at the FSGS for the duration of 9 months
- 3 Einstein Fellowships at FSGS for students of German literature and culture from the Global South for the duration of 12 months (and a preceding digital program)
- 2 DAAD grants for international students of German literature and culture for the duration of 3 to 4 years
- up to 5 PhD positions for the duration of 3 to 4 years for graduate students working on their PhD-thesis at the FSGS
- 5 positions as research associate (E13 TV-L FU, 50%, 3 years) at the EXC TC/ FSGS as a member of the following projects:
 - Enlightened Medialities \(Civic Indignation\) (project lead: Prof. Dr. Frank Kelleter) | EXCTC DOC RA1 EnlMed 2024 EN
 - Obscured, Unrecognized, Forgotten. Negative Circulation in Literature (project lead: Prof. Dr. Jutta Müller-Tamm) | EXCTC DOC RA4 NegCirc 2024 EN
 - Prizeworthiness: Kinship Beyond Literary Nationalism (project lead: Prof. Dr. Caroline Kögler) | EXCTC DOC RA4 Prize 2024 EN
 - Circulations of Theory: Topics, Processes, and Histories of a Globalised Form of Writing (project lead: Prof. Dr. Michael Gamper) | EXCTC DOC RA4 TheoCirc 2024 EN
 - Digital observatory of World Literature (project lead: Prof. Dr. Frank Fischer) | EXCTC DOC RA5 DigObs 2024 EN

The detailed and legally binding calls for application can be found on the website for Job Offers at Freie Universität Berlin (11. September 2023).

Applications must be submitted via the application platform of the Dahlem Research School. Applications submitted via mail, e-mail or in any other form will not be accepted.

The application deadline ends on 12 November 2023 at 23:59 CET.

Further information and details about the online application:

<https://www.geisteswissenschaften.fu-berlin.de/en/friedrichschlegel/foerderung>